

Women's Studies Minor Information Sheet

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____
(please print clearly)

Phone #: _____

Major: _____

Student #: _____

Date accepted to minor: _____

Students are encouraged to meet with the Program Director, Dr. Jen Riley, and program faculty to plan a course sequence that responds to their individual interests and goals.

WMS Minor Course Checklist

WMS Minor – active from Sept. 2003 to May 2007. This minor applies to all students who entered the university before Sept. 4, 2007:

Core Courses (3 credit hours each)

- _____ WMS 101: Introduction to Women's Studies
- _____ WMS 208: Global Perspectives on Women
- _____ WMS 305: Contemporary Feminist Theory and Practice

Electives: Three electives, two of which must be at the upper level (9 credit hours)

- _____ (3 credits)
- _____ (3 credits)
- _____ (3 credits)

Total: 18 credit hours

WMS Minor – active Sept. 4, 2007. This minor applies to all students entering the university on or after Sept. 4, 2007:

Core Courses

- _____ WMS 101: Introduction to Women's Studies
- _____ WMS 201: Introduction to Feminist Theory

One of the following upper level feminist theory course:

- _____ WMS 305: Contemporary Feminist Theory and Practice
- _____ WMS 302: Global Feminism
- _____ WMS 306: Third Wave Feminism
- _____ WMS 307: Ecofeminism

Electives: Three electives, one of which is to be from a perspective other than European or American, from an approved list. See approved list below. 9 credit hours

Total: 18 credit hours*

Out of the 18 credit hours for a minor, nine need to be at the upper level.

Approved List for Non-Western/Comparative Cultures Elective

- WMS 200 – Special Topics in Women's Studies – if on non-Western/Comparative Cultures topic
- WMS 208 – Global Perspectives of Women
- WMS 260 (POR 260) – Gender and Sexuality in Lusophone Literatures
- WMS 270 (HST 270) – Latin American Civilizations
- WMS 300 – Special Topics in Women's Studies – if on non-Western/Comparative Cultures topic
- WMS 302 – Global Feminism (if not taken for the feminist theory requirement)
- WMS 319 (SOC/ANT 319) - Gender Variation and Sexual Orientation Across Cultures