

The Quequechan River
Has Something To Tell You...

Once nurturing, powerful, and proud,
the Quequechan River yearns for someone to notice and care.

A stunning picture book by Educator and Author
Jeanne L. Prevost

PUBLISHED BY OPERATION OUTREACH-USA PRESS 2008,
ISBN 978-0-9792144-2-4 - AGES 8 – ADULT

Presenting the first book ever written for children about the importance of neutering pets
By educator and author
Jeanne Prevost

PUBLISHED BY THE GRYPHON PRESS 2008,
ISBN 978-0-040719-06-4 - AGES 4 – 10

About the Author

Jeanne Prevost lives near the Quequechan River in Fall River, Massachusetts. She is an elementary school teacher in Somerset, and was formerly a teacher in Fall River Elementary Schools. She loves woodland beauty, hiking and backpacking, swimming, boating, and bicycle riding. Most of all, she enjoys sharing her deep and abiding love of nature and animals with children.

Story Times and Book Signings:

Tuesday, November 18th 7:00 PM
Somerset Public Library

Saturday, November 22nd 10:00 AM
Fall River Public Library

PLAY "CAT JEOPARDY" AND WIN A FREE BOOK!
FREE COLORING BOOK
FOR ALL WHO PURCHASE
QUEQUECHAN: FORGOTTEN RIVER