

SUMMER WRITING CAMP

2008 sponsored by

BUZZARDS BAY WRITING PROJECT

at

Joseph Case Junior High School

195 Main Street

Swansea, MA

About the Camp:

A summer writing camp for students entering grades 5 – 9 in the fall of 2008 is now available during the month of July. Students who attend the camp will participate in a variety of writing experiences and genres including poetry, prose, fiction, and nonfiction.

Participants will also have the opportunity for critiquing by staff and peers.

Our staff have been trained by the Buzzards Bay Writing Project and are Teacher Consultants in the teaching of writing.

SESSIONS:

The camp will be held on Mondays through Thursdays from July 7 through July 24 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at Case Junior High School. Students may sign up for one-week, two-week, or three-week sessions.

COST: $100 per week

Buzzards Bay Writing project is a National Writing Project Site and is affiliated with the Center for University, School, and Community Partnership at UMass Dartmouth.

APPLICATION FORM

Student's Name

Parent/Guardian's Name

Address

Phone Number

Student Information

Age _____ Sex (F) (M)

Grade entering in the fall _____

Name of School _____

Check one:

- One week - $100 (July 7 – 10)
- Two weeks - $200 (July 7 – 17)
- Three weeks - $300 (July 7 – 24)

Form of payment:

- Check (payable to UMassDartmouth)
- Charge Card: Mastercard Visa Discover

Card number and expiration date

Signature

3-digit security code

Send to:

Buzzards Bay Writing Project
c/o Diana Grady

Center for University, School, and Community Partnership

200 Mill Road Suite 150C
Fairhaven, MA 02719