

The Boivin Center Scholarship
for UMD sophomore, juniors and seniors

Application Form 2008-2009 Academic Year

The Boivin Center for French Language and Culture promotes the teaching of, research about, and appreciation of French language and culture and acts as a catalyst for French studies at the university and regional levels. The Center was founded to be an enduring symbol and constant testimonial to the interest of Omer E. and Laurette M. Boivin in the study, promotion, and preservation of French language and culture.

A selection committee will evaluate each applicant's academic involvement in French language or culture. The current award is $1,000 and is non-renewable, although recipients can reapply the following year. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have no outstanding Incompletes (I grades) are eligible to apply if the following criteria are met:

1. Superior academic standing (Committee will request transcripts from Registrar's Office).
2. Full-time course load for the two most recent semesters (Fall 2007 and Spring 2008).

Name	Phone
Address
City	State	Zip
College/University Credits to Date
Field of Study/Major
ID #

If you are interested in the Boivin Center Scholarship, please complete this form. Include a short statement of around 200 words describing your interest and study in the area of French language and culture, keeping in mind the requirement for academic involvement in this field and the purpose of the Center. The statement should be in English.

Please return your completed application no later than October 3, 2008 to Susan Clarke, Financial Aid Office, University of Massachusetts Dartmouth, North Dartmouth, 285 Old Westport Road, MA, 02747-2300.