

Fall 2011

Course Offering -- IST 444-01

TOPICS IN INDIC STUDIES

Gandhi

Instructor: Srinivas Reddy

Time: 2:00PM – 4:30PM Wednesday

Gandhi will explore the life and writings of one of the twentieth century's most influential human beings. As a freedom fighter, lawyer, philosopher, writer and family man, Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi's most extraordinary life encompassed a vast array of subjects, from civil disobedience and the Indian Independence Movement to personal hygiene and religious freedom. By reading material from Gandhi's prolific pen, including his early autobiography, we will engage with his opinions on various topics through his own words. His teachings remain just as relevant today, and his life continues to influence people in profound and inspiring ways. Your active participation in class discussions is essential.

