GRADUATE ACADEMIC RESOURCES AND LEGAL WRITING CENTER

Voluntary Disclosure of Disability

UMass Law · Dartmouth is committed to providing equal access to educational opportunities for all qualified individuals. Documentation information submitted to the Director of ADA compliance will be held in strict confidence.

Please check the area(s) that best describe(s) your disability:

_____ Learning Disability       _____ Hearing/Speech Disability
_____ Attention Deficient Disorder  _____ Psychological Disability
_____ Physical Disability         Other ______________________________________

Are you presently taking medication for your disability?  Yes______  No______
Describe _____________________________________________________________

Area(s) affected by your disability:

_____ Reading      _____ Writing      _____ Attention/Concentration      _____ Other
_____ Speech       _____ Mobility      _____ Hearing/Speech            _____ General Health

After you have attached your medical or psychological testing documentation to this form and returned it to the office listed below, you will be contacted for a meeting with the Director. At that appointment, a mutual decision will be reached on reasonable exam and/or classroom accommodations. Your signature below indicates you understand that if you are eligible for and receive accommodations in law school, you may not necessarily be granted those same accommodations by your state’s Board of Bar Examiners when you sit for the bar exam or on the MPRE, the professional ethics exam.

Name__________________________________  Cell________________________________

Email__________________________________________________________@umassd.edu

Anne Walsh Folino, Esq., Director
508.985.1162 - afolino1@umassd.edu

Graduate Academic Resources and Legal Writing Center
Law School Library – Room 104
Form ADA100