1.00 INTRODUCTION

The Town of Barnstable Massachusetts has conducted a random sample telephone survey of Barnstable households since 2003 to determine residents’ perceptions of Barnstable and their opinions about various town services and initiatives. The results of the surveys are used as a tool to help guide the Town’s future. Issues that are explored include:

- Quality of life in Barnstable
- Satisfaction with town services and programs
- Quality of public schools
- Level of contact with Town officials
- Sewering
- Renewable energy
- Community programming
- Roads and traffic
- Image of Barnstable

The survey was conducted using a questionnaire developed by Bridgewater State College. Most of the questions have remained the same from year to year to allow changes to be measured over time, although unique topical questions have been added in each survey as well. Results are presented for each survey year where data is available.

2.00 METHODOLOGY AND SURVEY TABULATION

A total of 435 telephone interviews were conducted with Barnstable households from November 12, 2009 through November 21, 2009 for a margin of error of +/-4.7%. Interviews were conducted between 4:00 pm and 8:00 pm on weekdays and 10:00 am to 4:00 pm on weekends. Callbacks were also scheduled during daytime hours.

This range of hours provides the interviewers with an opportunity to contact hard to reach respondents, a procedure crucial to producing high quality survey data. Respondents were called a minimum of five times before they were determined to be unreachable. The Center’s senior staff continually monitored the progress of interview outcomes to prevent problem cases that could interfere with the integrity of survey procedures. The survey procedures used by the Center for Policy Analysis adhere to the highest quality academic and government research standards.

2.10 SAMPLING PROCEDURES

The Center for Policy Analysis uses the Genesys Sampling System from Marketing Systems Group to generate random telephone numbers. The system uses a list of all possible telephone numbers in the United States to randomly generate a telephone sample for a designated geographic area. The survey was conducted using a random digit dialing (RDD) sample. The RDD sample ensures an equal and known probability of selection for every residential telephone number in Barnstable.

1 There is a 4.7 percent margin of error at a confidence interval of 95 percent. This means that if a question from the survey was asked 100 times, 95 of those times the percentage of people giving a particular answer to the question would be within 4.7 points of the percentage who gave the same answer in this poll. However, the number of responses is lower for some questions, thus the margin of error is higher in those cases.
2.20 Survey Administration

The Center for Policy Analysis uses Computer Assisted Telephone Interviewing, or CATI, to conduct telephone surveys. Specifically, the Center for Policy Analysis uses WinCATI software from Sawtooth Technologies, which is one of the oldest and most widely used CATI systems in the world. Using WinCATI, telephone interviewers conduct interviews via computers, which provides highly reliable data because the computer controls the questionnaire, skip patterns are executed exactly as intended, responses are within range, and there are no missing data.

2.30 Telephone Interviewer Training and Supervision

Student research assistants and Center staff were employed as telephone interviewers. Nearly all of these interviewers have a minimum of two years’ experience in conducting telephone polls on behalf of the Center and all have been trained intensively, including practice interviews. Senior-level staff at the Center for Policy Analysis monitored the interviewers at all times to ensure high quality data collection.
