

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS DARTMOUTH PROCUREMENT MANUAL

Section 1.11 - UMass Logos - Trademarks - Licensing

1. The University of Massachusetts has initiated a licensing program under which the right to the commercial use of the name, seal, initials, mascot, and associated logos of the University of Massachusetts is granted to manufacturers for use on various products (clothing, glassware, key rings, etc.) for sale or distribution. The Licensees pay a royalty to the University of Massachusetts for use of the University's trademarks at the five campuses: Amherst, Boston, Dartmouth, Lowell, and Worcester.
2. University departments that wishes to have such items produced for resale or for promotional purposes must utilize a licensed vendor of the UMass System. To determine if licensing will be required contact:
