

Annie Royer

The Boivin Center for French Language and Culture and the Claire T. Carney Library Associates proudly announce a holiday concert featuring Annie Royer and Les Garçons Musettes to be held on December 11th, 2016 in the Recital Hall of the College of Visual and Performing Arts Building at 2 PM.

Annie Royer, a native of Paris, has captivated audiences on both sides of the Atlantic for many years. Her wide repertoire of music includes soulful music à la Edith Piaf (her specialty) as well as popular French songs, lively Broadway music and jazz. Les Garçons Musettes, a talented and well-known group of musicians backs her up. Ms. Royer performs in both French and English in venues large and small.

Admission for the concert is $10. Parking is available on campus in lots 7 and 8 with handicapped parking available in lot 6. Signs on campus will direct guests to the Recital Hall. Handicapped seating is available at the back of the hall on the first level for guests in wheelchairs as well as on the ground level of the venue.
