

Music of Blowing Flowers

Center for Indic Studies

Presents

Classical Flute Concert by

Sangeetha Samraat, Venugana Chakrvarthi,

Kalaimamani (1983)

Prof (Dr.) Prapancham Sitaram

“mesmerising music with unrivalled breath

control, sensitive tonal chastity, perfect

intonation and mediating phrases on the flute”

K.V.S.VINAY (VIOLIN)

GAURISH CHANDRASEKHAR(MRUDANGAM)

Venue: UMass Dartmouth

Main Auditorium – Parking Lot 5

Date: March 30, 2013

5:00–7:00 PM

Doors open at 4:30PM

Complimentary dinner 7:00PM

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC FREE

The Celebrity Prapancham Sita Ram started his musical career as a Child Prodigy. He is a top grade flutist, music composer for All India Radio, Doordarshan and a top artiste of ICCR panel. His innumerable National and International awards and honors include UNESCO sponsored Asian Rostrum Global First Prize (1993), President Of India Awards twice (1957 and 2004), State Insignia Honor by King of Laos (1964), “Kalaimamani” title honor by Tamil Nadu Government long back in 1983 on a par with film personality Rajnikanth, and Madras Music Academy awards for his outstanding main concerts a number of times.