Center for Indic Studies Seminar Gandhi Lecture Series, 2009

“Using Gandhi’s Lens Today”

Rajiv Malhotra
President, Infinity Foundation
Princeton, NJ

DATE: FRIDAY, Oct. 9, 2009

PLACE: Library Browsing Area

TIME: 12 Noon – 1PM

Pizza & Beverage: 11.45AM

Gandhi’s relevance is to be examined through his methodology and not just his policies for his era. The talk shall explain his ideas on the distinctiveness of Indian civilization, and its approach to the “other” with audacity. What would such an attitude look like today?

Bio: Rajiv Malhotra is the founder and president of Infinity Foundation. An Indian-American entrepreneur, philanthropist and community leader, he has devoted himself, for the last ten years, to clarifying the many misperceptions about Indic traditions in America and amongst Indians. He is an active writer, columnist, and speaker on a variety of topics, including the traditions and cultures of India, the Indian Diaspora, globalization, and East-West relations. Rajiv has been appointed to the Asian-American Commission for the State of New Jersey, where he serves as the Chairman for the Education Committee, which was created to start an Asian Studies program in schools. He also serves on the Advisory Board of the New Jersey Chapter of the American Red Cross and has volunteered in local hospice and AIDS counseling.
