

In celebration of International Education Week
UMassD Center for Portuguese Studies and Culture | Tagus Press & the International Student & Scholar Center proudly present

Jihadism in Mozambique

A talk by Prof. Eric Morier-Genoud,
Hélio and Amélia Pedroso
Luso-American Foundation Endowed Chair in Portuguese Studies at UMass Dartmouth

Wednesday November 17th, 2021 | 5pm

Charlton College of Business
Auditorium | CCB 149

- Parking Lots 13 and 14
- Face Masks are required

Eric Morier-Genoud is a Reader in African and Imperial History at Queen's University, Belfast. His main research interests are Religion and Politics, War and Conflict Resolution, the Portuguese-speaking world, and Southern Africa. He is a recognized leader in the field of social movements within the context of Lusophone Africa.

For more information, contact:

■ Clara Bordas (cbordas@umassd.edu)

Center for Portuguese Studies & Culture

UMass Dartmouth