

UMassD Center for Portuguese Studies and
Culture | Tagus Press proudly present

The Catholic Church & the decolonization of the Portuguese Empire

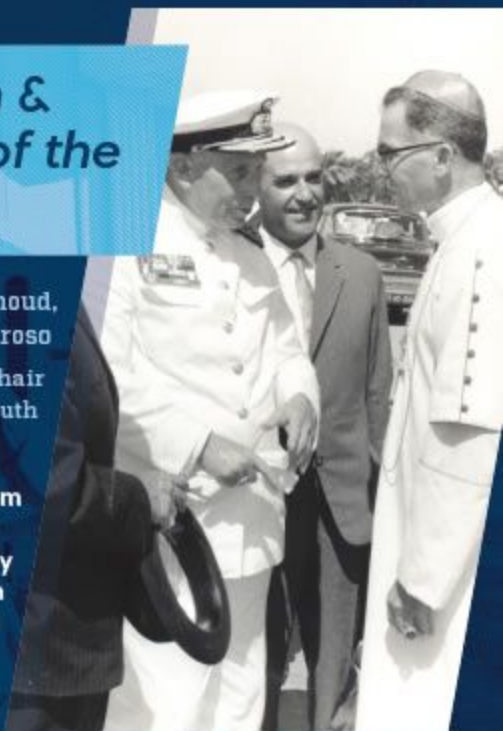

A talk by Prof. Eric Morier-Genoud,
Hélio and Amélia Pedrosa

Luso-American Foundation Endowed Chair in Portuguese Studies at UMass Dartmouth

Saturday December 11th, 2021 | 3pm

Harbor View Gallery
New Bedford Whaling Museum
18 Johnny Cake Hill
New Bedford, MA 02740

Face Masks are required

A pillar of the Portuguese and colonial societies, the Catholic church was deeply affected by decolonization. Navigating a rich and complex situation, this presentation unpacks the dynamics of the church after 1945, teases out the diversity of situations and positions in Angola, Mozambique and other colonies, and offers a panorama of the politics of church and state in Portugal and its colonies right up to 1975.

To register, visit:

https://umassd.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_QW75HM1UQQ6d3JkgJgvHew

For more information, contact:

■ Clara Bordas (cbordas@umassd.edu)

Center for Portuguese
Studies & Culture
UMass Dartmouth

