

Dual Major Policy Within the Charlton College of Business

All students who select a dual major within the College of Business must complete the uniquely required courses of the second major. Examples: For ACT students who have limited Business Electives, that usually means that they end up taking several extra classes that brings them up to around 135. Ops requires 7 classes beyond the 333/345 core classes.