

VPN setup for Linux (Ubuntu 10.04)

- From the right side of the menu bar, select the network manager and connect to UMASSD network.
- Select VPN Connections, Configure VPN and then click the Add button.

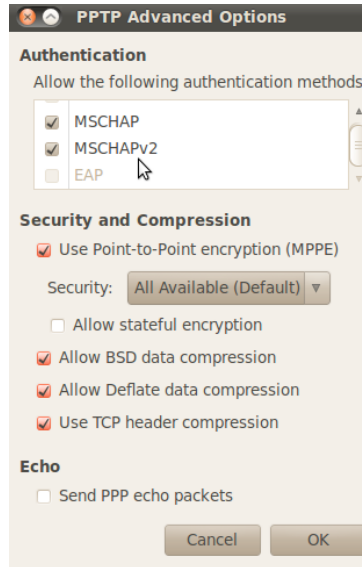

- Select PPTP and click create.

- Enter UMassd VPN for the Connection Name.
- Click to select “Connect Automatically”.
- In the gateway field, enter 134.88.252.20
- Enter your UMassD Logon username into the field provided.
- Uncheck “Available to all users”

- Click the Advanced button.

- Click to select “Use Point-to-Point encryption”.
- MSChap & MSChapv2 remain checked however PAP, CHAP & EAP are not.
- Click OK and then Apply.
- Close the Network Connections Manager.
- Reboot your computer.

To use your VPN connection

- Select Network Manager and under VPN Connections select UMassd VPN.
- When prompted enter your UMassD Logon Password.