Electrical Engineer: Gizem Tabak

Gizem Tabak received her B.S. degree in electrical engineering from Bilkent University, Ankara, Turkey, in 2014, and her M.S. degree in electrical and computer engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Urbana, IL, USA in 2016, where she is currently working toward her Ph.D. degree. She was a Fulbright Scholar during her M.S. studies, and a Motorola Solutions Foundations Scholar during the academic year 2019. Her research interests include high rate information transfer in nonideal acoustic systems.

In her free time, she enjoys working on applied problems in audio processing and machine learning. During her graduate studies, she worked as an intern at Maxim Integrated and Intel, and she's been involved with the local communities in Champaign through cultural associations and volunteer organizations.
