

ART + DESIGN MINOR

FINE ART GENERAL

18 credits

You'll select courses from drawing, painting, printmaking, and sculpture to complete the Fine Art General minor within the Art and Design Department.

To declare a Fine Art General minor, students must be a degree candidate who has earned at least 24 credits, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.000 and a minimum 2.500 grade point average in their major.

Note: Students must pass sophomore and/or junior level reviews prior to moving to advanced level courses.

Students select 4 courses (12 credits) from the 200-level studio course list and then 2 courses (6 credits) from the 300-level course list.
