

ART + DESIGN MINOR

GAME ARTS

18 credits

Required game arts classes provide students with necessary skills/knowledge for working in the game arts industry, while one elective class chosen from a list of recommended classes allows each student to choose a course aligned with their personal game arts interests.

The minor in game arts offers students the opportunity to accomplish the following:

- understand the roles of professional game designer and game artist
- work with digital tools such as Photoshop, Unity3D and Maya
- develop skills which will enable production of physical prototypes
- produce a portfolio of character, environment design, and functional prototypes

Prepare for careers such as:

- game artist
- game designer
- game user interface designer
- board game designer

To declare a Game Arts Minor, students must be a degree candidate who has earned at least 24 credits, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.000 and a minimum 2.500 grade point average in their major.

Note: Minors in this concentration may be required to have a laptop.
