

ART + DESIGN MINOR

PAINTING

18 credits

Enhance your artistic abilities with a minor in painting. You'll develop your technical, aesthetic, and intellectual abilities through traditional and contemporary practices.

You'll learn fundamental skills and contemporary practices through a wide spectrum of course offerings such as:

- form
- color and space
- the human figure
- concept-development
- mixed media
- abstraction

To declare a Painting Minor, students must be a degree candidate who has earned at least 24 credits, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.000 and a minimum 2.500 grade point average in their major.

Note: Students must pass sophomore and/or junior level reviews prior to moving to advanced level courses.

Students select 12–15 credits from the menu of 200/300-level studio courses below and then one (1) or two (2) upper-level courses in painting.
