Transfer of Credit

A maximum of 6 semester hours of credit (or the equivalent) may be transferred from another institution toward a UMass Dartmouth graduate degree – and a maximum of 3 semester hours of credit (or the equivalent) may be transferred toward a UMass Dartmouth graduate certificate – with approval of the relevant department, dean and Office of Graduate Studies, provided the courses have a B minus or better grade.

Unless specific arrangements have been approved by relevant entities, including the Office of Graduate Studies, course credits applied in the attainment of another credential (e.g., degree or certificate) from any institution, including UMass Dartmouth, cannot be used to fulfill any of the requirements of a graduate credential (e.g., degree or certificate) at UMass Dartmouth

Credentials required to complete your Graduate Application

Apply online at:
www.umassd.edu/graduate

After you complete your application for admission, it will be reviewed by the relevant graduate program. You must provide, in addition to the standard online application and non-refundable application fee, the following items:

All Applicants please note:
Resumes, statement of purpose and any required recommendations (must originate from the recommender) shall be emailed to gradadmissions@umassd.edu
