Health Insurance Requirement:

J-1 Exchange visitors and their J-2 dependents must maintain coverage for the duration of their stay in the United States. We recommend that you arrange for insurance coverage before you arrive in the U.S. Depending on your affiliation with UMass, you may or may not be eligible for health insurance coverage through the university. To find out if you are eligible, you should speak to the administrator in your sponsoring department.

Minimum health insurance coverage for J-1 Exchange Visitors must provide all of the following:

- Medical benefits of at least $100,000 per accident or illness;
- A deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness;
- *Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,500;
- *Payment of expenses associated with medical evacuation in the amount of $50,000.

*The University of Massachusetts campuses offer J-1 exchange visitors and their J-2 dependents free-of-charge coverage of Medical Evacuation and Repatriation that meets the U. S Department of State requirements. This coverage will be reviewed with you when you arrive on campus and check in at the International Student & Scholar Center.

Please visit our Scholars' Health Insurance Page for more information .

Health care in the U.S. is very expensive. If you chose to purchase insurance coverage from a non-U.S. based company., in most cases, you will have to pay for your medical care when you receive it. You will then be responsible for submitting paperwork to your insurer for reimbursement.

I declare that the statements above are true.
