ENGLISH WRITING, COMMUNICATIONS & RHETORIC (ENL-W)

Concentration Sheet

(15 Credits)

Program Description: A student concentrating in Writing, Communications, and Rhetoric for the LAR major develops abilities in writing, communications, and rhetoric. Students have the opportunity to take classes in creative writing and emerging media, journalism and related non-fiction, persuasive and advocacy writing, public relations, and technical and professional writing. In addition, students learn to analyze rhetorical problems and compose effective arguments for specific audiences. As with each concentration option in English, LAR majors will develop their abilities to think and write critically, as well as communicate effectively in various formats such as literary analysis, argument, exposition, and oral presentation.
