

Outstanding Research, Scholarship, or Creative academic work by an Undergraduate Student
Nomination Letter Guidelines

Page limit: 3

Nominations are March 1, 2024.

1. Describe the student's research, creative, or scholarly work, emphasizing the outstanding aspects such as:
 - a. Quality of the work
 - i. Originality
 - ii. Impact
 - b. Consistency of effort by the student
 - i. Extra initiative or key insight shown by the student
2. Provide up to three points of evidence of success, such as:
 - a. Presentation or publication at peer-reviewed conferences or exhibitions
 - b. Success in receiving internal and external recognitions, awards, residencies and scholarships
 - c. Success in graduate school or job placement
3. Student's CV (not included in page limit)

Nominations will be submitted through the Research Development Grant Portal.

Outstanding Research, Scholarship, or Creative academic work by a Graduate Student
Nomination Letter Guidelines

Page limit: 3

Nominations are due March 1, 2024.

1. Describe the student's research, creative, or scholarly work, emphasizing the outstanding aspects such as:
 - a. Quality of the work
 - i. Originality
 - ii. Impact
 - b. Consistency of effort by the student
 - i. Extra initiative or key insight shown by the student
2. Provide up to three points of evidence of success, such as:
 - a. Presentation or publication at peer-reviewed conferences or exhibitions
 - b. Success in receiving internal and external recognitions, awards, residencies and scholarships
 - c. Success in graduate school or job placement
3. Student's CV (not included in page limit)

Nominations will be submitted through the Research Development Grant Portal.