Disabilities & Accommodations: The law school is committed to providing equal access to a quality legal education for all students. Any students who feel they may need an accommodation based on the impact of a documented disability should set up a meeting with Wendi Chaka, Director of UMass Dartmouth's Center for Access and Success: 508.999.8711 or wchaka@umassd.edu.

ExamSoft: All exams (other than take home exams on the next page) will be administered remotely via ExamSoft. For ExamSoft installation instructions, and other information, see <https://www.umassd.edu/law/students/law-enrollment-center/>.

Examination Conflicts: A student who has an "examination conflict," as defined in the UMass Law Student Handbook § 16(d) (iii), is entitled to have one of the examinations rescheduled. There is an examination conflict when a student has two or more final examinations scheduled to start fewer than sixteen hours apart. For example, if you have exams scheduled at 6:30 p.m. on Monday and 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, you have an examination conflict. If you have exams scheduled at 1:30 p.m. on Monday and 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, you do not have an examination conflict. Exams that specify a window of time in which to start and complete the exam do not create exam conflicts if there is any way to avoid a conflict within the assigned window.

If you have an examination conflict, you must submit a petition within two weeks of the close of the published add and drop period or the publication date of an exam schedule revision that creates a conflict for you, whichever occurs later. If you do not file a timely petition, you will be deemed to have waived your right to object to the conflict.
