Public Interest Law Fellowship (PILF) recipients are bound by the requirements set out in the program Terms and Conditions agreement. A student who fails to meet these requirements is subject to dismissal from the PILF Program. Dismissed students may submit an appeal to be considered for reinstatement into the program to the PILF Oversight Committee within ten days of notification of dismissal.

Appeal Process

Students may appeal a determination that they are no longer eligible to participate in the Public Interest Law Fellowship Program by submitting a written request. The request for appeal must outline the reasons that contributed to their ineligibility such as an illness, death in the family or other mitigating circumstances, and the conditions that have changed to assure their circumstance will improve going forward. The appeal, along with all supporting documentation, must be submitted to the Director of the Public Interest Law Fellowship Program within ten (10) days of the notice of their termination. The PILF Oversight Committee shall make a final determination within ten (10) business days of receipt of the letter of appeal. Please use the space below for your statement. Typed explanations or additional pages may be attached and submitted with this form.
