Veterans and Former Military Students

You’ve served your country, now let UMassD help you succeed!

If you have any documented disability that hinders your academic performance, such as:

- PTSD
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Traumatic Brain Injury
- Attention Deficit Disorder
- Hearing Loss
- Vision Loss
- Memory Disorders
- Processing Disorder
- Chronic Health Conditions

The Center for Access and Success (CAS) can help you succeed with services including:

- Extended Time on Tests and Exams
- Reduced Distraction Test Environment
- Preferred Seating
- Recording Lectures
- Loaner Smart Pens for Notetaking
- Peer Notetakers
- Use of Laptops for Essays or Notetaking
- Siga Language Interpreters
- Textbooks in Accessible Formats
- Advocacy and Mediation

The CAS will meet with you one-on-one to determine the best possible way to assist you in meeting your academic goals. Any VA recognized disability could qualify you for the services including but not limited to those listed above.
