Clinic is a serious time commitment. The Immigration Law Clinic is a 6-credit clinic, requiring approximately 20-25 hours/week. This includes your work on projects and cases, client meetings, seminar and seminar reading, and weekly supervision meetings. Because you are working with clients, the schedule is not always predictable and urgent last-minute issues may arise. Students may also need to put in additional hours to meet client filing deadlines.

Do you expect to participate in any additional activities outside of your normal law school coursed during your enrollment in the Clinic that will require an extensive time commitment (e.g. work, law review, student organizations)? If so, please describe these activities and how you plan to balance this time commitment with your clinic obligations.
