

Upper-Level Courses – Pre-requisite and Co-requisite Planning

Full-Time 2Ls have two electives in the Fall and three electives in the Spring. Part-Time 3Ls have one elective in the Fall and two electives in the Spring. If you choose these courses carefully, you can maximize your ability to take the courses that interest you most during law school. Below we list six important courses that serve as pre-requisites or co-requisites for other courses. We also show the semesters in which we usually offer each course. We suggest that you take these prerequisite courses at the earliest possible opportunity. Note that all classes are offered subject to minimum enrollment and instructor availability.
