Disabilities & Accommodations: The law school is committed to providing equal access to a quality legal education for all students. Any students who feel they may need an accommodation based on the impact of a documented disability must contact Wendi Chaka, Director of the Center for Access and Success (508-999-8711, wchaka@umassd.edu) to set up an appointment.

ExamSoft:

Prior to midterm and final exams, you will receive an automated email with login credentials and download instructions for each of your exams. If you intend to type midterm and final exams on your computer using the Exemplify app from ExamSoft.com, you must first install and register Exemplify as per the emailed instructions, and you must download every available exam in the app.

Final Exams: you must download every available exam in the app. no later than midnight on Wednesday, July 24, 2019.

ExamSoft: Laptop users must report to the exam room 15 minutes before the scheduled time of the exam in order to perform the required set up. Software must be opened within 10 minutes prior to the start of the exam. If the software cannot be opened at least 10 minutes before the start of the exam, the student must hand-write the exam. The starting time of the exam will not be delayed, nor will the ending time be extended. The actual time you have to do the exam is the same as for others, who are not using laptops for that exam. All exam writers (laptop and paper) will be writing in the same exam room. Ear plugs are available upon request.

Examination Conflicts: A student who has an “examination conflict,” as defined in the UMass Law Student Handbook § 16(d) (iii), must submit a petition within two weeks of the published add and drop period.
