

University of Massachusetts Dartmouth Behavioral Expectations for Orientation Including Online Platforms 2020

To maintain an inclusive environment that is as safe as possible for all students, UMass Dartmouth expects all Orientation participants to adhere to the following:

- That I will follow all Federal, State, and Local laws and that infractions of these laws may result in both criminal and University-related sanctions or penalties.
- That I am expected to adhere to the University's Code of Student Conduct and policy infractions may result in sanctions including separation from the University and immediate removal from the Orientation program. I understand that the full text of the Code of Student Conduct can be accessed at <https://www.umassd.edu/media/umassdartmouth/student-conduct-and-dispute-resolution/SCPP-2019-2020.pdf>
- That the possession and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. There will be no tolerance for demonstrations of the consumption of alcohol during orientation including on any online platforms and doing so may result in disciplinary sanctions and/or immediate removal from the Orientation program.
- That the possession and/or consumption of illegal drugs is prohibited. There will be no tolerance for demonstrations of the consumption of drugs and doing so may result in disciplinary sanctions and/or immediate removal from the Orientation program.
- That I am responsible for maintaining a safe environment, and I will not engage in any offense or derogatory language or behaviors.
- That I understand that access to online platforms such as Zoom, Facebook, and Outlook Email, are provided to me for learning, communicating, and building community. I understand that any abuse of usage on these platforms may result in disciplinary sanctions and/or immediate removal from the Orientation program.
- That I will participate in all Orientation program sessions and follow instructions of University staff members or officials.
- That I will contact University Police (508-999-9191) if I require assistance in a safety matter.
