Every program in the Charlton College of Business (CCB) is AACSB-accredited, the gold standard for business schools. Globally, less than 6% of universities with business degree programs earn AACSB accreditation, and less than 2% earn supplemental accounting accreditation. Among AACSB-accredited business schools, the U.S. News and World Report ranked Charlton in the top third of U.S. undergraduate business programs.
MORE OPPORTUNITIES

• Accelerated degrees: Charlton students can accelerate their graduate degree plans through “double count classes” that satisfy both BS and MS/MBA, or MBA and Juris Doctor requirements.

• VITA: Charlton students have volunteered over 9,000 hours to our Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program, processing over 5,000 tax returns generating $11.7 million in refunds.

• NB100! : The Charlton College of Business has been awarded $50,000 to partner with the New Bedford Economic Development Council to promote local entrepreneurship and wealth in the SouthCoast. CCB students can grow their network and gain real-world experience by providing technical assistance to aspiring entrepreneurs in the region.

RESOURCES FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

Business Center: The Business Center is a tutoring lab that aims to improve and advance business learning through personal mentorship, group study, graduate school application assistance, and more.

Charlton Technology Center: The Charlton Technology Center provides CCB students access to the very Bloomberg terminals that power Wall Street. The UMassD Investment Club uses these terminals in their student-managed fund, which beat the S&P 500 benchmark by 4% in 2021.
