Tracking Sheet for the Minor in Women’s and Gender Studies
For students who declared the minor before Fall 2018

Name & Student ID#______________________________________
Date______________________________________

New minors must schedule a meeting with Prof. Heidi Berggren, Chair, Women’s and Gender Studies, to plan a course sequence that fits their individual interests and goals. hberggren@umassd.edu (508) 999-8272

A. 4 Core Courses (12 credit hours)
1. WGS 101: Introduction to Women’s Studies
2. WGS 201: Introduction to Feminist Theory
3. WGS 312: Feminist Research Methods
4. ONE (1) of the following upper level feminist theory courses

Semester & Year: __________
___WGS 302: Global Feminism
___WGS 305: Contemporary Feminist Theory and Practice
___WGS 306: Third Wave Feminism
___WGS 307: Ecofeminism

B. 2 (Two) Electives (6 credit hours). One of these electives is to be from a perspective other than European or American. This elective must be chosen from the approved list below. Check with the Department Chair to see if another WGS course may be approved for your Non-Western/Comparative Cultures elective.

Semester & Year

Elective 1: ________________________________________________

Elective 2: ________________________________________________

Current List of Courses Approved for Non-Western/Comparative Cultures Elective
- WGS 200, WGS 210, and WGS 300, the topics courses, if on Non-Western/Comparative Cultures topic—Check with the Department Chair to confirm.
- WGS 208 - Global Perspectives of Women
- WGS 260 - Gender and Sexuality in Lusophone Literatures
- WGS 270 - Latin American Civilizations
- WGS 302 - Global Feminism (if not taken for the feminist theory requirement)
- WGS 319 - Gender Variation and Sexual Orientation Across Cultures
- WGS 347 - Special Topics in Women’s Literature, if on Non-Western/Comparative Cultures topic—Check with the Department Chair to confirm.
- WGS 350 - Readings in Sociological/Anthropological Literature, if on Non-Western/Comparative Cultures topic—Check with the Department Chair to confirm.
- WGS 376 - Women and Sexualities Across Cultures
- WGS 391 - Topics in African History

C. 9 credits (3 classes) must be at the 300/400 level
1. WGS 312 ❑
2. Upper-level theory course ❑
3. Course prefix, number, name, semester, year ______________________________________ ❑

Total: 18 credit hours (6 classes)